MOM,

There's not enough space on this page to hold all that I could say and thank you for... Your countless sacrifices. Being mother and father. My ever so frequent "30 days no telephone" punishments, Lol, which you typically let me off of early :) Your thoughtfulness, kind heart and generosity. Your superb budgeting, organizational, and party throwing skills -that I clearly inherited, HAHAHA! Your fun loving personality, zest for life, and love for extended family that both set the tone for how I live my adult life and made my childhood absolutely priceless!

For these incredible memories, unconditional love, and more I say THANK YOU, I LOVE YOU & HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!  Makeda

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY MOM...

Dear Mom, Thanks for being such a wonderful example over the years. Your strength, courage, compassion & love for our entire family and community-at-large, is evident in everything you do. I'm grateful for all the times you urged us to gather together. Being able to draw on those memories gives me strength in times like this, and also gives me something to look forward to. I might even get in the bounce house next time - ha! I love you so much and can't wait to see you again in person, soon. -- Tangie

“Having a grandmother is like having an army. This is a grandchild's ultimate privilege: knowing that someone is on your side, always, whatever the details. Even when you are wrong. Especially then, in fact. A grandmother is both a sword and a shield.”

“Happy Mother's Day Grandma, I love you!”

LOL! I'll never forget recording that on your picture frame. You've taught me so much and helped me throughout my entire life. Spoiling me, buying me clothes, games, etc. Most of my favorite memories are at your house and Myme's house. I was always excited to go over because I never had a bad time. I still can't believe you never gave me a whoopin or spanked me; but I did get punched in the chest over a monopoly game by a certain someone who you might know, but I won't say any names- Hahaha! Anyway Grandma, I love you and I will always appreciate the love you've shown me whether I was good or bad. Thank you!  Raymond
